

What's the worst thing about going on holiday? Take-out food every day. But NEFF's partnership with Tinkersfield accommodation changes that...

The ultimate country escape, complete with NEFF appliances

Set in Australia's beautiful snowy mountains, Tinkersfield is a wonderful place to escape the everyday. It's nestled in the alpine valley, surrounded by beautiful gum trees and native grasses making you feel at home in the wilderness.

During the winter months, you can hit the slopes in Thredbo or Perisher. While in summer you can explore the alpine region by bushwalking or hiking. In any season, the Snowy Mountains offer an incredible opportunity to rest, reflect and reconnect with nature. That's why we couldn't say no to the opportunity to collaborate with Tinkersfield.

NEFF x Tinkersfield

Tinkersfield have a collection of rustic, hand-crafted houses that have been designed with a mix of vintage, modern and industrial style furnishings. You can choose from the intimate charm of The Post Office, the rustic comfort of the spacious Barn or the sweeping, mountain views of the Field houses that overlook secluded valleys. But there is one thing all these beautiful rooms have in common – a gourmet kitchen fitted with luxurious NEFF appliances. This includes our dishwasher, microwave oven and induction cooktop which means you can cook up a storm, no matter which room you choose.

What rooms can you choose from?

Tinkersfield know that every adventure requires a different home-base. Their unique high country homes have different arrangements, sleeping upto 11 people. So whether you want an intimate getaway for two or a larger escape with the extended family, there is a house that suits your needs.

What else can you do in the Snowy Mountains?

Make the most of the fresh country air by exploring the beautiful Snowy Mountains. Located in Crackenback Valley, Tinkersfield is exactly half way between Thredbo Village and Jindabyne meaning you can get the most of both of these destinations.

Here are some cool things to do in the area:

- Ski or snowboard on Perisher or Thredbo
- Explore the mountain lakes on a canoe, kayak or standup paddle board
- Test your endurance by climbing up Mt Kosciuszko
- Make a gourmet meal in your NEFF kitchen and enjoy the beautiful views with a glass of wine
- Go horse riding in Australia's beautiful high country
- Catch a fish in the alpine streams
- Get your heart-rate up by mountain biking through the rocky trail
