COOKING PASSION SINCE 1877

The NEFF customer kitchen's we're taking inspo from this winter

We love the change in seasons – and the new interior styles they bring. And winter 2023 is not disappointing, with moody palettes and pops of colour top of renovators' lists.

Take a look at some of the NEFF customer kitchens we're looking to for inspiration this season!

This incredible kitchen renovation in the Melbourne suburb of Kew is the epitome of winter 2023 style! The team behind the 100-year-old Spanish Mission style home's revamp opted for a bold mint green colour palette and patterned splashback tiles. And we love how they've seamlessly incorporated a power combination of our NEFF built-in oven and built-in microwave into their cabinetry too. A real wow-factor kitchen.

Timber, timber and more timber feature in this Adelaide kitchen. With a curved island bench and superb attention to detail, we love how warm this kitchen space feels – even in winter! They've also added two of our NEFF ovens, which blend in perfectly. Gold accents including tapware and lights add to the dreamy feel of the space.

It's modern industrial at its best. This sleek yet eye-catching kitchen in Victoria has been well thought out – and it stands out! With dark panelling, terrazzo features, timber floors and lots of light, the heart of the home looks like the perfect spot to entertain or cook up a feast for the family. The combination of our NEFF ovens and gas cooktop make the space functional, while their proximity to other appliances means the whole space is cohesive and ready for someone to cook up a storm!

Building and design: @theblock @karlieandwill

This one is a bit of a look back in time but we feel like Karlie and Will from The Block were ahead of their time when they designed this moody kitchen back in 2016! It's got everything we love – dark cabinetry, timber features and a spacious island bench. Can you spot 3 (!) of our NEFF ovens and the build-in coffee machine too? A home chef's dream!
