

Roast everything: our favourite oven recipes

One of the best things about the cooler months is roasting and baking. Whether it's your vegetables, a piece of meat or a yummy side, roasting and baking are an easy, healthy and tasty way of cooking.

Here's our favourite NEFF recipes for you to try.

Crunchy crackling roast pork with rhubarb relish

We all love roast pork but, let's be honest, it all comes down to the crackling. Salty, crunchy and delicious, there is such a thing as the perfect roast pork crackling – and all it takes is a few, simple steps, and NEFF's CircoTherm® and VarioSteam® functions, to keep it juicy on the inside and crunchy on the outside. Combined with the sweet, aromatic tanginess of a rhubarb relish and some roasted vegetables, this recipe is impossible to pass up.

Roasted lemon chicken with oregano potatoes & lemon butter sauce

While roasting a chicken is not, in itself, the most complicated of dishes (provided you have the right oven setting, such as NEFF's CircoRoasting function), pairing it with the right accompaniments is what transforms this relatively common meal into a restaurant-quality feast. The creaminess of the butter and the piquancy of lemon, combined with the peppery freshness of oregano and notes of roasted garlic will leave everyone begging for more – especially the perfect roast potatoes.

Whole roasted cauliflower

It is always a popular side dish in any season, but this whole roasted cauliflower recipe is impressive enough to be the main attraction. Packed with punches of flavour from hummus, pomegranate and za'atar spices, it's a new take on comfort food that will impress even the most die-hard meat lovers.

Roasted potato & carrot salad with lemon mustard dressing

It may be called a salad, but this delightful roasted potato and carrot fusion is good enough to be the main event. Packed with colour and flavour – and equally good served warm or cold – this sweet and tangy dish, baked and steamed to perfection with NEFF's CircoTherm® and VarioSteam® functions, provides balance to the heartiness of meat or another winter vegetable recipe.

Venison with sweet potato mash

As a leaner, more earthy-tasting alternative to beef – venison is full of protein and easy to cook. And when paired with herbs and a bed of comforting mashed potato, it's sure to become a dinner-time staple. Using NEFF's CircoTherm® and FullSteam functions, this recipe is bolstered with exotic flavours of rosehip, red wine and spruce needles – you will not regret the time it takes to make this unique dish.

Roast beef with mustard potatoes and jus

There's nothing quite like a tender and succulent roast beef – accompanied, of course, by perfect roast potatoes. Ready in an hour and too good to be confined to Sunday lunch, this delectable combination of seeded mustard, rosemary, eye fillet and crunchy chat potatoes will have you reaching for more.
