Four party recipes for any occasion

As we move into peak party season, having tasty food you can hold in one hand while having a drink in the other is essential. Whether it's an intimate gathering with loved ones or a large party with the whole family, we're sharing our four favourite party recipes so you can impress anyone that you entertain.

Cheesy jacket potatoes

For all the cheese and potato lovers out there, this one is for you. Our cheesy jacket potatoes are nice and crispy on the outside, but light and fluffy on the inside. These potatoes make for great finger food thanks to the firm exterior of the potato skin. And you can use this dish to cater for different dietary requirements – but make sure you check the ingredients list first.

Using a NEFF oven with CircoTherm® allows you to roast the potatoes to perfection, making it easier to slice the potatoes in half and scoop out the flesh. And if you have a NEFF Slide&Hide® oven, you can easily access your jacket potatoes while they grill so you can add an extra dash of cheese on top for a bit of tasty pizzazz.

Coffee spiced pulled pork sliders

If you need an instant wake-up at your next party, then our coffee spiced pulled pork sliders are a must-have. The coffee and spice rub add uniquely distinct flavours that the pork will absorb while cooking. When paired with the slaw and mayonnaise, your guests will be treated to well-balanced flavour party in your mouth.

When you use the VarioSteam function on your NEFF oven, the added steam allows the pork to become juicy, tender and easy to pull apart. And with a Slide&Hide® disappearing door oven, checking that your pork is ready to rest is a breeze.

Roast pumpkin arancini

Arancini is an easy party snack you can make in a pinch. The crunchy exterior gives way to the unique texture of the risotto and roasted pumpkin, which will leave guests wanting more.

Baking the arancini is made easy with a NEFF oven with CircoRoasting. This setting circulates hot air around your food constantly, which is perfect for creating a crunchy texture without drying out the risotto and pumpkin mixture of the arancini.

Sticky date pudding

When it comes to dessert for a party, nothing beats having a sticky date pudding with your post-meal coffee or tea. These party-sized puddings can suit any occasion – just remember to serve the puddings with cream, ice cream or both.

Using one of NEFF's ovens with FullSteam enables you to steam your puddings effortlessly. You can also batch cook these up to four weeks in advance and reheat them with the FullSteam function.
