

Falafel Sandwich with Hummus

DIFFICULTY: EASY

PREPARATION TIME: 12
HOURS

COOKING TIME: 25 MINUTES

SERVES: 6-8

Ingredients

250 g dried chickpeas
10 g fresh coriander
10 g fresh parsley
2 red onions
2 cloves of garlic
1 tsp Ras el Hanout
2 tsp ground cumin
1 tsp salt
1 tbsp sesame paste (tahini)
Juice and zest of 1 organic lemon
½ tsp baking powder
250 g Greek yoghurt
6-8 cherry tomatoes
70 g of plucked lettuce
6 pita or naan breads
200 g hummus
coriander greens for serving lemon for drizzling

Method

Soak the chickpeas in plenty of water for at least 12 hours, then drain well. For the falafel, wash the coriander and parsley and pluck the leaves from the stems. Peel the red onions and the garlic. Finely dice 1 red onion and the garlic and cut the other red onion into fine rings for serving.

Place the chickpeas, coriander, parsley, diced onion, garlic, ras el hanout, cumin, salt, sesame paste, lemon juice and zest of ½ lemon, and baking powder in a food processor. Blend the ingredients until creamy but not too fine. You may still see a few chunks.

Preheat the oven to 200 °C Air Fry. Shape the falafel mixture into 18 – 20 small balls with your hands or an ice cream scooper. Arrange the falafel on the Air Fry & Grill Tray, place in the oven, and air fry for 15 – 19 minutes on shelf level 2, until golden brown.

For the yoghurt sauce, mix yoghurt and the juice and zest of ½ lemon. Season with salt and pepper. Wash and drain the lettuce. Also wash the tomatoes, remove the stalk and cut into slices.

Toast the pita or naan bread in a pan on Induction Hob setting 6. Spread thinly with hummus and top with lettuce, tomatoes and onions, as desired.

Fill each with 3 falafel balls, top generously with yoghurt sauce and coriander greens and finally drizzle with lemon juice. Enjoy!
