SERVES: 4

Ingredients

2 x 400 g pork fillet or 800 g pork loin cutlets
2 tsp sesame oil
2 tbsp olive oil
3 garlic cloves, crushed
2 shallots or spring onions, finely sliced
2 tsp grated ginger
1 tbsp ground Chinese five spice
1 tbsp tamari or light soy sauce
375 ml apple or pear cider
1 kg fresh plums, halved (Blood plums are ideal for cooking)
Toasted sesame seeds, coriander, steamed rice and steamed greens to serve

Method

Place pork into a glass dish; pour over combined oils, garlic, shallots, ginger, spices, tamari and cider. Add plums; cover with plastic wrap and marinate several hours (or overnight, if time allows) in the fridge.
Drain pork and plums from marinade, reserving marinade; place onto a NEFF lightly greased enamel dish. Insert meatprobe horizontally into flesh of pork. Place tray on shelf 3, select 180°C CircoRoasting® with medium steam. Set core temperature to 68°C and the oven sets the right amount of time for you. If you don't have a meatprobe, cook for 20 to 25 minutes, depending on the thickness of the meat.
Meanwhile pour reserved marinade in a saucepan; bring to the boil, then turn heat down to medium and reduce marinade; season if needed. Strain and pour over rested pork and plums. Sprinkle with sesame seeds and top with coriander. Serve with rice and greens.
